CHILD SAFETY AND WELLBEING POLICY

1. PURPOSE

- 1.1. The purpose of this policy is to educate all members, staff, supporters and spectators of Research Junior Football Club Inc ("RJFC") on their responsibilities when interacting with children and young people at our Club and to familiarise members, staff, supporters and spectators with the Club's processes for its response to any concerns, incidents or allegations of harm or abuse to children and young people.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

- 2.1. RJFC is committed to creating a safe, inclusive and welcoming environment for all children and young people who participate in football and umpiring activities at RJFC;
- 2.2. RJFC is committed to implementing child safe practices in accordance with the Victorian Child Safe Standards (Appendix 1);
- 2.3. RJFC has zero tolerance for any form of child abuse or harm and will act quickly to protect children and young people should an incident occur. All complaints will be treated seriously, fully investigated and handled confidentially;
- 2.4. RJFC is committed to the active participation of children and young people at RJFC, ensuring all children and young people know their rights, have their views taken seriously and involve them in decisions that may directly affect them and their peers at RJFC;
- 2.5. RJFC recognises the important role families play in supporting children and young people to participate in Australian football and values the input of families in decision making at RJFC;
- 2.6. RJFC recognises the particular needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people and will promote their cultural safety within the RJFC environment;
- 2.7. At RJFC, all children and young people have equal rights to protection from harm and abuse regardless of their race, religion, age, disability cultural background, gender, sexual orientation or family/social background. RJFC considers that the health, safety and wellbeing of children and young people take priority over all other competing considerations.
- 2.8. At RJFC, the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people at RJFC is a shared responsibility between RJFC, its staff, contractors, associates, parents/carers, coaches, spectators, volunteers and members of our RJFC community.

3. SCOPE

- 3.1. This Policy applies to everyone involved at RJFC including (but not limited to) participants, parents, spectators, contractors, officials, coaches, and committee members.
- 3.2. This Policy should be read in conjunction with RJFC's related policies and procedures, the Victorian Child Safe Standards (Appendix 1) and Commonwealth and Victorian legislation and (Appendix 2).
- 3.3. RJFC is committed to continually reviewing its policies and practises to protect the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people. This policy will be reviewed on a regular basis in consultation with all RJFC participants including children, young people, parents/carers, board/committee members and other interested parties.

CHILD SAFETY AND WELLBEING POLICY

4. DEFINITIONS

- 4.1. Child and Young Person means a person under the age of 18 years.
- 4.2. Child Abuse includes all forms of physical, emotional, psychological, verbal and/or sexual abuse. Child abuse also includes sexual exploitation, neglect or negligent treatment, grooming, harassing behaviour, bullying or other exploitation of a child or young person and includes any actions that results in actual or potential harm to a child or young person. Child abuse can be a single incident or take place over time.
- 4.3. Child protection means any responsibility, measure or activity undertaken to safeguard children from harm.
- 4.4. Club is the name of the Club outlined in the header of this Policy document (RJFC).
- 4.5. Family violence occurs when children and young people are forced to live with violence between adults in their home. Family violence includes violence between members of a family, or extended family, or those fulfilling the role of family in a child or young person's life. It can include witnessing violence or the consequences of violence. Exposure to family violence places children and young people at increased risk of injury and harm and has a significant impact on their wellbeing and development.
- 4.6. Grooming is a term used to describe what happens when a perpetrator builds a relationship with a child or young person with the intent to abuse or harm them. Perpetrators may also groom parents/carers by forming relationships of trust with parents/carers before harming a child or young person. Grooming can take place over a long period of time before abuse occurs or the abuse can happen relatively quickly. Grooming can take in physical (face-to-face) environments or online.
- 4.7. Harm can be any action that may have a significant impact on a child or young person's physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing. Harm can be caused by:
  - 4.7.1. Physical, psychological or emotional abuse or neglect;
  - 4.7.2. Sexual abuse or exploitation;
  - 4.7.3. Family violence;
  - 4.7.4. a single act, omission or circumstance; and
  - 4.7.5. a series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances.
- 4.8. Sexual abuse or exploitation is any act which exposes a child or young person to or involves them in sexual acts beyond their understanding or contrary to accepted community standards. Sexual offence behaviours can include the fondling of genitals, masturbation, oral sex, vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, finger or any other object, fondling of breasts, grooming, voyeurism, exhibitionism, and exposing the child to or involving the child in pornography. It also includes engaging a child or young person to participate in sexual conversations online.
- 4.9. Concerns and complaints include any issue that an adult or peer considers may negatively impact on the safety or wellbeing of a child or young person.

5. EXPECTED BEHAVIOUR AT OUR CLUB

- 5.1. All participants, parents, spectators, contractors, officials, coaches, and committee members have responsibilities in relation to the safety and wellbeing of children and young people at RJFC and are expected to:

RESEARCH JUNIOR FOOTBALL CLUB

CHILD SAFETY AND WELLBEING POLICY

- 5.1.1. understand the definitions of child abuse and harm and act on anything that they hear or see;
- 5.1.2. understand the rights of children, as appropriate to their role and cause no harm to a child or young person;
- 5.1.3. value equity and diversity at the club and treat all children and young people with respect regardless of their race, religion, age, disability cultural background, gender, sexual orientation or family/social background;
- 5.1.4. at all times, know and follow this Policy and related child safety and wellbeing guidance (including but not limited to our Club's Child Safe Code of Conduct and Complaints Handling and Reporting procedures);
- 5.1.5. co-operate with police and/or other formal investigations to the best of their ability.
- 5.2. All third-party contractors are expected to abide by RJFC's Child Safe Code of Conduct, and where they may engage with children or young people, sign an agreement requiring them to comply with this Policy and RJFC's Child Safe Code of Conduct, prior to delivering any services.
- 5.3. RJFC will appoint a Child Safety Officer or equivalent role that will be the primary point of contact for all concerns and complaints related to child safety and wellbeing.

6. RECRUITMENT AND SCREENING

- 6.1. RJFC seeks to implement screening practices that reduce the risk of harm or abuse to children and young people by:
  - 6.1.1. Recruiting people suitable to work and interact with children and young people (e.g. by requiring Working With Children Check or other State equivalent and/or Police checks). No adult will be allowed to work in a child related role at RJFC until a valid Working with Children Check and/or Police Check has been obtained.
  - 6.1.2. Undertaking background checks of staff, contractors and volunteers who interact with children and young people such as two referee checks with specific child related questions.
- 6.2. RJFC also requires that all committee members hold a valid Working with Children Check.
- 6.3. Once engaged, staff, volunteers, committee members and contractors must read this Policy and related documents (such as those outlined in Appendix 2) and familiarise themselves with child safe practices at RJFC.

7. SUPPORTING CLUB STAFF, COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND VOLUNTEERS

- 7.1. RJFC is committed to supporting all staff, committee members and volunteers to understand how to create a child safe and child friendly environment at our club.
- 7.2. RJFC recommends staff, committee members and volunteers familiarise themselves with the following online training in child safe practices - AFL Safe Footy Safeguarding webinars and resources, Play by the Rules training (child protection, cultural awareness, LGBTI+ inclusive clubs, Let Kids be Kids, Complaint handling) and eSafety Commissioner (safe online environments) (Appendix 3) and the RJFC Code of Conduct.
- 7.3. RJFC Coaching Staff (including Team Managers) sign an additional Code of Conduct available on the club website.

CHILD SAFETY AND WELLBEING POLICY

- 7.4. RJFC will provide support and supervision to all staff, committee members and volunteers, so people feel valued, respected and fairly treated.

8. RISK MANAGEMENT APPROACH

- 8.1. RJFC recognises the importance of identifying and managing risks to children and young people in physical and online environments and will implement risk management related policies plan to address risks.
- 8.2. The policies will be updated on a regular basis in consultation with staff, volunteers, parent representatives and children and young people to ensure it is fit for purpose.

9. COMPLAINTS AND REPORTING

- 9.1. RJFC has appointed a Safety and Wellbeing Committee person as the Club's Child Safety Officer. This person will respond to any concerns expressed by staff, volunteers, parents, carers or children regarding known or suspected abuse of a child connected with the Club.
- 9.2. The Child Safety Officer can be contacted via email (cso@ researchjuniorfc.com.au).
- 9.3. RJFC will take all concerns and complaints seriously, whether they are raised by an adult, child or young person. All child related concerns and complaints will be responded to promptly and confidentially.
- 9.4. RJFC has a complaint handling policy in place and a child friendly complaints poster to help children and young people to understand how they can raise a concern or a complaint with the Club.
- 9.5. If there is concern for the immediate safety of a child or young person, immediately call the Police '000'.
- 9.6. If a child or young person is not in immediate danger but any person who believes on reasonable grounds that a child or young person is in need of protection from any form of child abuse or harm, may disclose that information to the Police or Child Protection.
- 9.7. If a concern or complaint includes an allegation or incident of child abuse or harm, RJFC staff and volunteers must report it in accordance with our Club's Complaint Handling Policy.
- 9.8. Any RJFC staff, committee member or volunteer who is the subject of a child or young person related concern or complaint may be requested to stand down from their position in the Club during an investigation, have their duties altered so they do not engage with children and young people and/or have their access to the Club's IT system/database removed.
- 9.9. RJFC will investigate allegations of inappropriate conduct against a child or young person in accordance with procedural fairness and will handle the allegations in a confidential and sensitive manner.
- 9.10. RJFC will keep a register of any allegations regarding inappropriate conduct.

10. REPORTING SEXUAL ABUSE

- 10.1. If a person receives information that leads them to form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed, that person has a legal obligation to disclose that information to the Police as soon as it is practicable. Individuals who fail to comply with this obligation under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) may be subject to a penalty of imprisonment.
- 10.2. A number of professions in the community (including but not limited to teachers, nurses and doctors) are also required by law to report to Child Protection where they have formed a belief, on reasonable grounds, that a child is in need of protection because they have suffered (or are likely to suffer) significant harm due to physical or sexual abuse.

10.3. This report must be made as soon as practicable, and on any occasion where they become aware of other allegations and have reasonable grounds for belief.

11. POLICY BREACHES

11.1. It is a breach of this Policy for any person or organisation subject to this Policy to have been found to have done anything contrary to this Policy. Any person who breaches this Policy is subject to the Member Protection Policy and/or grievance procedure outlined in the Club constitution/Handbook.

12. RECORD KEEPING AND INFORMATION SHARING

12.1. RJFC is committed to making and retaining accurate records of reports of child safety related concerns and complaints.

12.2. RJFC will maintain records and outcomes of investigations and resolutions of concerns and complaints. In maintaining records of reports about child safety, our Club will maintain confidentiality and privacy for children and families in accordance with legislation.

12.3. As part of RJFC's commitment to continuously improve our children and young people safety practices, RJFC will review identified risks to child and young people through the incident management and record keeping process and will incorporate those risks into the risk management plan.

12.4. From time to time, RJFC may share relevant information to promote the safety and wellbeing of children and young people where appropriate and in their best interest. This may include sharing information with external authorities to comply with the law or to prioritise the safety of a child or young person.
